Sir,

Allowances - Tasdik - Coondapoor Taluk - Basrur village - Institution Nos.1 & 174 - Basrur Mahalingeshwar De and Chillare Mahalinga Dev.

The Tahsildar of Coondapoor recommended that the institution Chillare Mahalinga Dev should be deleted from the village accounts and that the tasdik of Rs.28.4.0 due to it should be added to the tasdik of Basrur Matabar Mahalingeshwar Dev which has a tasdik of Rs.2244-4-0 for the reason that the former institution has no building or idol of its own and the enquiry showed that the institutions were identical.

The latter institution has five moktessors, one of whom is one Venkatramana Holla; he is the only moktessor for Chillare Mahalinga Dev. The Inam register shows two separate entries for these institutions.

Venkatramana Holla was asked to state what was the institution of which he was the sole moktessor and where it was. He has evaded examination but in a former statement he has stated that both the institutions are one and the same. The Tahsildar has not been able to find out whether the deity had a separate building. The Inam register for Coondapoor Taluk shows two separate entries for the two institutions.

In view of this and also of the fact the moktessor Venkatramana Holla has failed to prove where the institution 174 Chillare Mahalinga Dev is, I solicit orders whether tasdik can be continued to be paid to him in respect of this institution.

Allowance - Tasdik - (South Kanara) - Coondapoor Taluk Basrur village - Chillare Mahalinga Dev.

Board's reference No.1605/33-1, dated 20.6.1933.

The Tahsildar reports that the tasdik allowance has been regularly paid to Chillare Mahalinga Dev. Shanker Holla, an ancestor of Venkatramana Holla, the present trustee was receiving the tasdik prior to Venkatramana Holla ever since the beriz deduction system came into force.

Allowances - Tasdik - (South Kanara) - Coondapur Taluk - Basrur village - No.174 Chillare Mahalinga Dev.

From the Board of Revenue, L.R. & S., Ref.No.A-1605/33-3, dated 15th September 1933.

Particulars regarding the two institutions, 174,
Chillare Mahalinga Dev and No.1 Mahalingeshwar Dev, are given in the list of money allowances relating to South Kanara district printed in G.O.No.2065, Revenue, dated 9th October 1929. The two institutions bear different names and the numbers of the title deeds
in which the original grants were confirmed also differ.
In the circumstances the statement that they are identical cannot be accepted without further evidence. The Board of Revenue is requested to furnish full particulars about the origin of each of these money allowances and the ~~xxx~~ nature of the services for which each was granted and to state what evidence there is to support the statement that the two institutions are identical.

2. If the two institutions are distinct and if there is now no such ~~xxxxxxx~~ institution as Chillare Mahalinga Dev. the Board is requested to state why the payment of the allowance of Rs.28-4-0 should not be discontinued.

The Secretary to the Board,
Land Revenue and Settlement,
M a d r a s.

Sir,

Allowances - Tasdik - Coondapoor Taluk - Basri
Institutions Nos.1 and 174 - Mathabar Mahalinga and Chillare Mahalinga - History of.

Board's Ref.A. 1605-33-5, dated 11th October 1933.

The Tahsildar, Coondapoor has held a detailed enquiry in the matter; but he has not been able to find out definitely the origin of these allowances and the nature of the services for which these allowances were granted.

With regard to the statement that both the institutions are identical, I enclose a copy of his report with the following documents which form enclosures to his report:-

1. Chitta of Basrur Kasba village for fasli 1227 (Kanarese)
2. Tasdik Account of Temples for fasli 1269.
3. Register of distribution of title deeds in the year 1877.
4. Copy of registered Tahanamah dated 8.9.1878.
5. Taluk Disposal File 393/1929.
6. List of minor temples of fasli 1273.

I am inclined to agree with the ingenious explanation of the Tahsildar that Chillare is not the name of a deity but the Kanarese word (anglicised) for 'balance after expenditure'. The amount of Rs.28-4-0 may, therefore, continue to be paid to the chief institution.

Your obedient servant,

From

M.R.Ry. V. Saldanha Aml., B.A.,

Tahsildar of Coondapoor.

To

The Collector of South Kanara.

Sir,

Allowances - Tasdik (South Kanara) -Coondapoor
Taluk - Basroor village - Chillare Mahalinga Dev -Report submitted - Your Ref.1150-33-B1 dated 17-10-1933.

Institution No.1 Mahalingeshwar Dev of Basroor village is one of the Mathabar (major) temples of this Taluk, wherein daily, fortnightly and annual services are performed.
It is said to have been founded by Vasu Chakravarthi (King) of Basroor.

2. From the enquiry held in the case it appears that there is no separate institution or idol called Chillare Mahalinga Dev in the village and that there are no separate services or viniyogas for it. It is reported that Chillare Mahalinga Dev and Mathabar Mahalinga Dev constitute one and the same institution.

3. From the Chitta in Hindvi character of Fasli 1227
as well as from a copy of Chitta of that fasli in Kanarese, it appears that there were 1 Mathabar (major) temple and 20 minor temples in Revenue Casba Basroor village. The Mathabar or the big temple is No.1 referred to above. No.174 Chillare Mahalinga Dev is not one of the 20 minor temples referred to in the chitta. There are 20 separate minor temples in the village with separate amount of tasdik for each temple. There is also no mention of Chillare Mahalinga Dev in the chittas or the particulars of services to be performed therein. At the end of page 2 of the 1st sheet of the Kanarese Chitta it appears that out of a tasdik of १२४०० = Varahas (pagodas) allotted to the minor temples १८२५ Varahas were retained for minor temples and the balance

Mathabar temple. Varaha in Kanarese means 4 rupees and 60 = ten vises Addo-bele i.e. 50 pies or Rs. 0-4-2. Hence out of 174 varahas + 0-4-2 = 696-4-2, 167 varahas i.e. Rs. 668 were given to minor temples and the remainder Rs. 28-4-2 to Mathabar i.e. institution No.1. Evidently after making separate allotments of tasdik to the several minor institutions, a balance Rs. 28-4-0 (chillare) remains and this was allotted to Mathabar Mahalinga Dev. Hence the term Chillare was a misnomer. Separate serial number and title deed might have been given to the balance of Rs. 28-4-0 with a separate moktessor, to collect it.

4. 174. Chillare Mahalinga Dev in the recent tasdik registers was also called Mathabar Mahalinga in the old registers. This will be evident from the following old documents:-

1. Tasdik account of temples for fasli 1269 (1859).

2. Register of distribution of title deeds in the year 1877.

3. Copy of registered Tahanamah executed on 8.9.1871 among the moktessors of Baroor Mahalingeshwar temple.

No.1. From this register it will be seen against serial no.11 Magne Basroor that the allowance of Rs.28-4-0 was shown against Mathabar Mahalinga Dev.

No.2. Against title deed no.148 the tasdik of Rs.28-4-0 with an additional 10 per cent viz. Rs. 2-13-3 = 31-1-3 was shown against Mahalinga Devara Moktessor Shanker Holla without naming the institution.

No.3. Sheet 7. From paragraph 20 marked in black lead pencil it would be seen that Mahalinga Dev has got a tasdik of Rs.28-4-0 by the name of Chillare Mahalinga with a separate moktessor Shanker Holla who after collecting the allowance should pay it to the funds of Mahalinga Dev.

5. My predecessor Mr. R. Shiva Rao reported to the President, District Temple Committee Mangalore in his letter D.Dis.393 D, dated 8.10.1929 that Mathabar Mahalinga Dev has got an additional tasdik allowance of Rs.28-4-0 vide this office D.Dis.file 393 D/Rev.29, dated 8.10.1929-enclosed.

6. In the list of minor temples of fasli 1273 (1863) it appears under serial no.17 of Yelare and Basroor Magnes that the allowance of Rs.28-4-0 was shown against institution Mathabar paiki Chillare Mahalinga Dev i.e. Chillare Mahalinga out of Mathabar. It is thus clear that there is no separate institution called Chillare Mahalinga Dev, but that only the chillare or the portion of the tasdik, that remained after making necessary allotments to the 20 minor institutions in the village, was allotted to the Mathabar Mahalinga Dev with a separate number and separate title deed.

7. The connected records are enclosed.
